Regionalized DIRTcar Sportsman-Modified Series Format

- a. The series is divided into three (3) regions. The format is similar to a playoff system, with home track points and regional races seeding drivers into a six-race championship series in late September and October.
- b. Home Track Bonus points are required and will be awarded to drivers at the completion of Labor Day Weekend.
- c. All Regional Series events are scheduled from April through September 23. At the completion of the regional series event schedule, all driver points will be converted to bonus points identical to home track points, with 1000 points being awarded to the regional series champion down to 900 for the 25th place finisher.
- d. There is no out of region bonus in 2018.
- e. Drivers from all three regions will be merged into a single point run-down on September 24.
- f. The Fall Championship Challenge will bring all three regions into a six-race shootout for the overall championship. Each of these races will race under the 150-point scale and will not be converted to bonus points.
- g. The DIRTcar Sportsman-Modified Series Champion will be the driver that earns the most points from home track bonus points, regional series bonus points and all points earned in the six event Fall Championship Challenge Series.

F.A.Q.

- a. Drivers may choose their region in which to chase points. It may be a different region than a driver’s home track.
- b. Drivers may chase points in multiple regions in order to earn maximum points. A driver’s best region will be used when awarding regional bonus points.
- c. The final point event will be at Brockville Ontario Speedway on Friday, October 12. The World Short Track Championship at The DIRT Track at Charlotte, October 25-27 is a non-point series event.
- d. Each of the three (3) regional champions will be guaranteed starters at Super DIRT Week in Oswego and also presented a trophy at the year-end DIRTcar banquet.
- e. All series event winners across all regions will earn a starting spot in the All-Star Invitational at the World Short track Championship in Charlotte. These spots are not handed down if the driver already has a spot.
